

INSURANCE DECLARATION

Losses covered by private insurance are not payable under the Personnel Claims Act. If any portion of your claim is covered by private insurance you must pursue a claim against your insurance company first.

Initial one of the following:

_____ I do have private insurance covering my loss. Enclosed is my settlement with my insurance company.

_____ I do have private insurance with _____, but my policy does not cover the type of loss in my claim. I authorize my insurance company to release to the United States Navy all requested information regarding this claim.

_____ I do not have private insurance. I authorize the United States Navy to inquire of any insurer whether I or my spouse has any insurance that may cover all or a portion of this loss. If married, spouse must initial _____.

Date

Member's Signature