

NORTH KOREA: MILITARY ZONE CLAIM (HYPOTHETICAL)

BOUNDARY REPRESENTATION IS NOT NECESSARILY AUTHORITYATIVE
North Korea's Military Zone claim is not recognized by the United States

The Military Zone in the Sea of Japan is 50nm wide. In the Yellow Sea it equates to the limits of their economic zone (200nm). No coordinates were provided for the military zone by the North Korean government. The yellow and black line depicted here is derived from a set of coordinates that are believed to be based on North Korea's enforcement of the Military Zone.
