Court of Criminal Appeals

Before
WOODARD, FULTON, and KOVAC,
Appellate Military Judges

UNITED STATES
Appellee

v.

Jonas C. LIN
Lance Corporal (E-3), U.S. Marine Corps
Appellant

No. 201900046

Decided: 2 July 2019.

Appeal from the United States Navy-Marine Corps Trial Judiciary. Military Judges: Lieutenant Colonel Mark D. Sameit, USMC (arraignment); Lieutenant Colonel Jeffrey V. Munoz, USMC (motions hearing); Major Nute A. Bonner, USMC (trial). Sentence adjudged 17 October 2018 by a general court-martial convened at Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, California, consisting of a military judge sitting alone. Sentence approved by the convening authority: reduction to E-1, confinement for 18 months,¹ and a bad-conduct discharge.

For Appellant: Captain David A. Peters, USMCR.

For Appellee: Brian K. Keller, Esq.

This opinion does not serve as binding precedent under NMCCA Rule of Appellate Procedure 30.2(a).

¹ The Convening Authority suspended confinement in excess of 6 months pursuant to a pretrial agreement.

PER CURIAM:

After careful consideration of the record, submitted without assignment of error, we have determined that the approved findings and sentence are correct in law and fact and that no error materially prejudicial to the appellant's substantial rights occurred. Articles 59 and 66, UCMJ, 10 U.S.C. §§ 859, 866.

The findings and sentence as approved by the convening authority are AFFIRMED.
